

Topics

Today's workplace is inundated with technology such as, computers, cell phones, and the Internet. Employees who access and use this technology in the workplace can expose employers to potential unlimited liability for invasion of privacy, sexual harassment, defamation, and theft of trade secrets.

Join an elite team of attorneys and computer forensic professionals in this full-day seminar, as they show employers how to identify risks posed by technology and take the necessary safeguards to minimize loss and liability.

Who Should Attend

- Business Owners
- Employee Benefits Managers/Staff
- Financial Officers
- Human Resource Managers/Staff
- Managers/Supervisors

About the EAC

The Sacramento EAC composed of employer volunteers representing a cross section of business and industry. The EAC was developed to promote a stronger partnership between the California EDD and the business community. Its commitment is to assist employers in conducting their business more effectively and efficiently, to provide information on employment-related issues, and to enhance the communication between EDD and the private sector.

This EAC is a member of the California Employer Advisory Council.

For more information about EAC membership, meetings, or this seminar, call Frida Ramirez at (916) 227-0368 or e-mail Frida.Ramirez@edd.ca.gov.
