

Scott Hervey Named to Variety's 2014 Legal Impact Report

Los Angeles, California, April 21, 2014 - Weintraub Tobin Chediak Coleman Grodin Law Corporation congratulates its partner, Scott Hervey on being recognized by Variety in its 2014 Legal Impact Report.

This report, appearing in the April 15 issue of Variety, highlights the nation's top entertainment industry lawyers whose work has helped shape the film, television, music and digital media industries.

"Scott keeps one foot in Hollywood and the other in Silicon Beach" said Weintraub's managing partner, Michael Kvarme. "His unique mix of traditional television and technology and digital media clientele earned him this prestigious spot."

Scott works with tech start-ups, gaming companies, TV production companies, multi-channel online networks, YouTube channels and technology investors. Scott Hervey received his J.D. with distinction, from the University of Pacific, McGeorge School of Law. Scott is a professor of entertainment law at King Hall, U.C. Davis, serves on the Hollywood Radio and Television Society's Board of Directors and as the chair of the Digital Media section of the Los Angeles Venture Association.

About Weintraub Tobin Chediak Coleman Grodin Law Corporation

With headquarters in the California state capitol and offices in San Francisco, Beverly Hills and Newport Beach, Weintraub Tobin Law Corporation combines its shared vision and pledges to be an innovative provider of sophisticated legal services to dynamic businesses and business owners, as well as non-profits and individuals with litigation and business needs. The firm continues its long-time and strong support of the communities in which its attorneys live and work. On the web at www.weintraub.com.

Stephanie Hill

shill@weintraub.com

