Weintraub Tobin Corporate attorneys provide comprehensive legal services for an array of businesses, from emerging growth and privately-held to national and international public companies.

Our Corporate Practice includes:

> MERGERS & ACQUISITIONS

Our Chambers-ranked* Mergers & Acquisitions team provides sophisticated representation in a broad range of business transactions, representing both buyers and sellers of entities of all sizes through asset and stock transactions, serial acquisition programs, leveraged buyouts, management buyouts, roll-ups, joint ventures, and other business transitions.

> CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Weintraub attorneys assist companies, their directors, and management in all aspects of corporate governance. This includes board structure, succession planning, operational structures, director compensation, insurance and indemnification, fiduciary responsibilities, and, if it becomes necessary, litigation of disputes that may arise.

> PRIVATE EQUITY

Representing clients on both the company and investor sides of private equity transactions, Weintraub attorneys handle leveraged buyouts, growth investments, senior debt loans, and hybrid deals. Attorneys counsel clients on internal governance matters and compensation structuring, and provide advice regarding investor rights, spin-offs, and roll-ups.

> HEALTHCARE

The Weintraub Healthcare attorneys are known for their expertise in business law, regulatory healthcare law, and healthcare mergers & acquisitions. Their expertise includes managing complex M&A, advice on emerging provider types and treatment models, representation in a wide array of healthcare-related joint ventures, counseling on Medicare and Medi-Cal enrollment and certification matters, and guidance on the full spectrum of agreements and regulatory matters that healthcare clients face.

> CAPITAL MARKETS

Working closely with public companies, their executives, and boards of directors, Weintraub attorneys represent both issuers and investors and provide counsel on a number of important aspects of their businesses, including SEC compliance and filings, stock exchange regulatory compliance and filings, preparing proxy statements, CMPO and PIPE transactions, and up-listing.

> TAX

Weintraub tax attorneys regularly provide sophisticated analysis and counsel in all facets of transactions regarding federal, state, and local taxation. Our tax group provides this counsel to C and S corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships, for-profits and nonprofits, and individuals.

> EMERGING COMPANIES & VENTURE CAPITAL

Startups and emerging businesses require specialized legal services to launch and move their new ventures forward. Our attorneys assist clients in making crucial early-stage decisions regarding choice of entity, ownership structure, and operating arrangements, as well as licensing and taxation issues.

> NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS

Attorneys in Weintraub's Corporate group regularly assist nonprofit organizations with their unique legal needs, from formation and obtaining tax-exempt status to counseling them on management roles and responsibilities, fiduciary duties of directors and interested party transactions, proper fundraising techniques, and tax-related matters to maintain federal and state tax compliance.
