Weintraub Tobin construction attorneys advise owners, developers, contractors, subcontractors, suppliers, and design professionals on complex legal issues impacting the construction industry.

Our Construction Practice includes:

> GENERAL CONSTRUCTION

Weintraub Tobin's construction attorneys are known for their deep expertise in California construction law and project delivery across public and private works. The firm's attorneys advise owners, developers, contractors, subcontractors, suppliers, and design professionals on contracts, preconstruction planning, bidding, and project execution. When disputes arise, the team handles mediation, arbitration, litigation, and trial involving construction defect, contract, and project-related claims.

> CONTRACTS & PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Weintraub attorneys provide sophisticated legal services across all phases of construction projects, representing a broad range of stakeholders, through billions of dollars in contract drafting and negotiation, risk management, bid projects, cost and time management, mechanic's liens and notices, bonds and insurance, and mediation, arbitration, and dispute resolution.

> MEDIATION

Providing mediation services in construction-related disputes, Weintraub attorneys draw on extensive industry and legal experience to address issues arising during and after project completion. Attorneys guide parties through disputes involving change orders, scheduling, contract compliance, and insurance, and work to achieve efficient, cost-effective resolutions that keep projects moving forward.

> LITIGATION & DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Weintraub attorneys help clients resolve construction-related disputes at every stage of a project. This includes construction defect and contract litigation, delay claims, mechanic's liens and collections, mediation, arbitration, civil trials, and ADA litigation, as well as strategic guidance to achieve efficient and favorable outcomes, with a team fully prepared to take matters through trial when necessary.
